

TRAVELERS' RAILWAY GUIDE.

Central Vermont Railway.

Trains leave Barre for White River Junction and Boston, and vice versa, as follows: Barre to White River Junction, 7:53 a. m. and 11:43 p. m. Also leave Barre for White River Junction, 8:00 a. m. and 12:00 p. m. Trains leave Barre for Burlington, St. Albans, Montreal and vice versa, as follows: Barre to Burlington, 7:53 a. m. and 11:43 p. m. Barre to St. Albans, 8:00 a. m. and 12:00 p. m. Barre to Montreal, 8:00 a. m. and 12:00 p. m.

Montpelier & Wells River Railroad.

Trains leave Barre for Wells River, connecting at that point with trains going both north and south, at 7:05 a. m., 12:25 and 4:45 p. m. The 12:25 train connects with train for Boston, and north for Lebanon, Littleton, Palmyra and Lancaster, also with Montreal express, and the 4:45 and 7:05 trains with St. Johnsbury trains. Trains leave Barre for Montpelier at 7:05, 10:00 a. m., 12:25, 3:45, 4:15 and 8:15 p. m.

Electric Street Railway.

Cars leave square in Barre for Montpelier at 15 minutes of and 35 minutes past the hour. Leave Montpelier for Barre on the hour and half hour until 10 p. m.

TOPSHAM.

George Wormwood of Bradford was in town last Tuesday.

Mrs. Erwin Hood returned from Hanover hospital last Monday.

Miss Fannie Chalmers has been visiting in town the past week.

W. G. Rogers of Orange was in town on business last Saturday.

J. B. McLean and O. D. Willey were in Montpelier last Wednesday.

The village school, taught by Miss Dana George, closed last Friday.

George Taplin and Alice White visited in South Ryegate the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McLean and son, Wilbur, have gone to Barre for a short visit.

Miss Ethel Hood has gone to Lake Morey, where she has work for the summer.

Misses Sarah McKay and Eunice Ward have gone to the mountains to work this summer.

Miss Stella Clement of Orange was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. P. J. McNamara, last week.

Mrs. Emily Taggart returned from Washington last Thursday, where she went to attend the funeral of her nephew, Cyrus Dickey.

Duncan McKay returned from Hanover Friday night. He left his little boy comfortable. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Currier went Saturday to take his place.

ORANGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Azro Noyes, from the City, were in town Monday.

Roddie Peake of Barre City is spending the week with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Mills visited friends in Plainfield a few days last week.

Miss Nellie Tillotson went to Boston Saturday to attend the teachers' convention.

Forest Cutler and Mrs. Alma Curtis were united in marriage Saturday evening, July 2, at the home of the bride, the Rev. Frank Blomfield of East Barre performing the ceremony.

The fireworks and dance at town hall Monday evening, July 4, drew a very large crowd and were thoroughly enjoyed by everyone, the fireworks being the best ever displayed in town.

The schools in town closed Friday, July 1. They were without exception very successful, the record of attendance being much above the average, the Clement school, taught by Nellie M. Tillotson, having an average of over 98 per cent. The following is a list of the pupils who had a perfect attendance: Minnie Clark, Flora Hood, Edna Hood, Evelyn Hood, Eva Hood, Eva Hayward, Esther Mills, Clarence Curtis, Stanley Curtis, Frank Clark, Edwin Eastman, Albert Eastman, Alfred Johnson.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores ruddy, sound health.

Torturing eczema spreads its burning area every day. Doan's Ointment quickly stops its spreading, instantly relieves the itching, cures it permanently. At any drug store.

Doan's Regulate cure constipation, tone the stomach, stimulate the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passage of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

There's nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil. Cures in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

Miss Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN'S COLIC, WITH TERTHING, WITH PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALWAYS ALL PAIN, BRINGS THE CHILD TO THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and ask for "Miss Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Wanted, in every town in Vermont a good agent to take orders for specialties. The work is suitable for ladies, as well as men.

C. H. TAFT, State Manager, Randolph Center, Vt.

When You Want

Soft Slab Wood, that is dry and nice, telephone

237, or 13 M, and find out for yourself that it is all right. $1.75 per load.

Morse & Jackson

365 No. Main St.

Office Tel. 237-1. Yard Tel. 13-M.

CHELSEA.

Mrs. Frances A. Nichols of Woodstock is visiting her brother, Warren Stearns, on the west hill.

Mrs. Sylvia Dearborn entertained last week her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cox of Walden.

Miss Mary A. Wille has returned from a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. Zerah Seaver, in Washington.

Russell Corwin has finished work for Benjamin Tucker of Tunbridge and is working now for Dean H. Gilman.

John W. Sprague has been entertaining for a week a case of jaundice, but at this time seems to be improving.

An examination of teachers will be held at the high school building here on Thursday and Friday, July 7 and 8.

At the regular monthly meeting of the local grange, last Friday morning, the work of the first and second degrees was exemplified.

Albert L. Benedict and family were in town last week and were guests of relatives. They returned to their home in South Royalton Saturday.

Leon Durien, a friend of Fred A. Ordway, who had been spending a week in town as his guest, left for his home in New York City, Saturday afternoon.

J. Wheatley Camp of South Randolph came last week and will remain in town for a few days, the guest of his brother, Albert Camp, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Morron and family of St. Johnsbury spent last week in town as the guests of Mrs. Morron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Allen Dickinson.

Albert Bents of Boston came last week to remain through the summer with his nephew, Dr. A. T. Marshall, as has been his custom for several years.

Ira A. Hill and family, who had been guests for several days of his brother, Nathan J. Hill, and family, left last week Friday for their home in Cherokee, Okla.

Mrs. Herbert J. Wyckoff and children of Norwich, Conn., came last week to spend a part of the summer in town and are the guests of Prof. and Mrs. John M. Comstock.

Vinton A. Corwin of Boston spent Saturday and Sunday in town, the guest of his father, J. A. R. Corwin. Mr. Corwin returned last week from a three months' trip abroad.

Mrs. Edward H. Mason of Randolph, who spent several days in town, as the guest of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Dana H. Morse, at A. W. Whitney's, has returned to her home.

Richard H. Bacon, who has been spending a month in town as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edith N. Bacon, returned to his home in North Charlestown, N. H., last Thursday morning.

George H. Bacon of West Berlin, a former townsman, and his grandson, Morris Joslyn of Montpelier, were in town Saturday and Sunday and were guests of the former's brother, E. N. Bacon.

Miss Emmeline Sample and two children of Moore, N. Y., returned Monday to their home, after having spent a week at the home of the former's brother, Wallace Lover, who lives on the Vershire road.

Miss Gertrude M. Bacon, who has been teaching for the past year in Chesham, N. H., returned to town last week and will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edith N. Bacon, during the summer.

General Charles K. Darling and wife, who spent several days in town last week as the guests of the general's father, Hon. J. K. Darling, and family, left Saturday morning for their home in Concord, Mass.

Hon. Hale K. Darling has so far recovered from his recent operation for appendicitis as to be able to return to his home on Saturday, and his successful recovery seems assured, which is a source of much rejoicing, not only to his family, but to his many friends throughout the state.

Mrs. F. G. Harrington and son, Edmond, and Miss Pearl Bates, teachers in the Spaulding high school in Barre City, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sprague of Brookfield and Dr. E. G. Sprague and family of Barre City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sprague during last week and the first of this week.

Mark Keniston of Cabot was in town Tuesday.

Arthur Perkins of Plainfield was in town Wednesday.

W. E. Bliss was in Montpelier Wednesday and Thursday.

Walter Sprague and wife of Cabot were in town Sunday.

John Y. Slick from South Bend, Ind., is visiting at D. B. Dwinell's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marsh visited in Cabot and Walden Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lawson of Woodbury were in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Clark of East Montpelier were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carley were visiting in Hardwick a few days this week.

Mrs. Guy Bancroft and Mrs. Ira Goodrich were business visitors in Cabot Thursday.

Jim Knight and Bert Lyford of Cabot were in town Wednesday in Mr. Knight's new automobile.

Mrs. Ira Goodrich is at home from Barre, where she has been caring for her aunt, who is ill.

Herbert Gray, D. L. Scott, Carl Ithen and L. P. Burnham were business visitors in Plainfield Saturday.

Fred Keniston, wife and two children of Waldham, Mass., are visiting at the home of his father, Lee Keniston.

Frank G. Scott and D. B. Dwinell attended a Sunday school convention at Barre last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Henry Kennedy of Montpelier was in town Wednesday and Thursday, setting up a monument at the grave of S. P. Cameron.

Napoleon's Grit

was of the unconquerable, never-say-die kind, that you need most when you have a bad cold, cough or lung disease. Suppose troches, cough syrups, cod liver oil or doctors have all failed, don't lose heart or hope. Take Dr. King's New Discovery. Satisfaction is guaranteed when used for any throat or lung trouble. It has saved thousands of hopeless sufferers. It cures asthmatic colds, obstinate coughs, hemorrhages, is grippé, croup, asthma, hay-fever and whooping cough and is the most safe and certain remedy for all bronchial affections. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Wonder What Happened.

"Do you believe in fate?" he asked, as he struggled closer.

"Well," answered the girl, "I believe that what's going to happen will happen."—Cornell Widow.

MONTPELIER.

Serious Accident Narrowly Averted. Auto Collided With Electric Car.

An automobile owned and driven by C. W. Melcher of Barre collided with an electric car Monday afternoon, near the Pioneer bridge, and that no one was injured was due to George Howe, the motorman in charge of the car. Mr. Melcher attempted to make the crossing before the car reached it, but miscalculated the distance and was struck broadside, a tire on one rear wheel broken, and the mud guard broken, while the fender was torn from the front of the trolley car. The electric car and auto were both going toward Barre and the motorman did not see the latter, as it came up from behind, until it was too late to avoid striking it.

Nine candidates took examination yesterday at the State House before the state dental board.

Frank Thomas is at Heaton hospital, suffering from a broken leg. He did not know his leg was broken, supposing it to be a sprain, and does not know how the accident occurred.

George F. Swasey was overcome by the hot sun yesterday on State street and had to be taken into the Blakely drug store, where restoratives were administered. He soon recovered.

Mrs. George H. Almon, who, as the result of a collision between an electric car and the automobile in which she was riding, has been in Heaton hospital since April 25, gains slowly and is able to sit up part of each day. It is thought that in time she will recover her health.

Robert B. Thresher and Miss Katharine Mande Sillaway were married Saturday evening by Rev. J. Edward Wright. They will reside here. The bride's home is in Middlesex, but she has been employed for some time in the home of P. J. Jerome, while Mr. Thresher works at the Crescent creamery.

Moses St. Peter, who was found lying on the railroad track near the Granite street crossing Sunday night in an intoxicated condition, was arraigned in city court yesterday morning and fined $15 and costs, which he paid. Officer Charles Jend made the arrest Sunday, which probably saved the man's life.

The condition of Mrs. Joseph Derry, who was taken to Heaton hospital last week, suffering from serious burns received at her home when a lamp came apart and set her clothing on fire, is more satisfactory and she will undoubtedly recover, though she will be unable to leave the hospital for some time.

Earl Cheney, the Waterbury boy whose eyes were badly burned by powder, which he placed in a bottle and then touched a match to, seems to be gaining and probably his sight will be saved, but it will be necessary to perform an operation to raise the lids from the eyeballs. He will soon be able to be taken to his home.

Articles of association have been filed in the office of the secretary of state by the Poulney Toy company of Poulney, organized to manufacture and sell toys. The capital is $5,000, with shares of $100 each, the subscribers being J. W. Derby, C. W. Humphrey and H. D. Oakie. The Somerville Lumber company of Somerville, Mass., has been granted permission to deal in all kinds of lumber in this state, also the Champlain State company of Framingham, Mass., which will deal in slate in Vermont.

Allen Nelson of this city and Miss Annie Dows of Putnamville were married last evening at the home of the bride by Rev. S. F. Blomfield. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Dows and the groom by Clifford Benjamin. The wedding gifts were numerous. Mr. Nelson is employed in the candy department of the Cross bakery, while Mrs. Nelson is a graduate of the Montpelier high school and the Albany Business college and has been stenographer in the office of C. C. Putnam & Son. Both have a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

At the Republican caucus last Friday evening, the following were elected to the county convention: W. E. Jones, F. J. Wilder, O. G. Eaton, D. R. Bisbee and H. W. Belden.

W. E. Jones, our new town clerk, has built an office in the rear of his store, with an entrance through the store, which will be a much needed convenience for those doing business at the office.

SOUTH CABOT.

Mrs. Wesley Hall has a new piano. Miss Rose Bondy was at home Sunday from her work in Danville.

Mrs. Ellen Houghton is visiting at her son's, E. Houghton, this week. L. J. Eastman and family spent last Sunday in North Danville at their daughter's.

Harold Nelson of Montpelier is visiting his uncle, L. J. Eastman, for a week. Jack Royallston is very ill at O. J. Clark's with peritonitis. He is attended by Dr. Burbank.

Mrs. C. M. Lamberton is at Hampton Beach, N. H., visiting her niece, Mrs. James Clegg, for a week.

Miss Grace Snow of Putnamville is visiting for a week at W. O. Southwick's and calling on old friends.

Mrs. Lucy Scribner returned to her home in Stowe Friday, after a three weeks' visit here with her son, Charlie. School closed June 24 with Nellie Kimball of Cabot as teacher. The names of the scholars who had no marks will be published later.

Mrs. W. O. Southwick wishes to thank the many friends and neighbors who were so kind to her in her recent illness, and showed their sympathy by the many deeds of kindness and the 104 post cards that came as rays of sunshine to the sick room, and which will never be forgotten by her.

BROOKFIELD.

The ladies' aid society of the Second church brookfield, at its last sociable.

Noah Frink is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Frink.

B. J. Williams and W. S. Williams were in Randolph one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Ferris of Roxbury recently visited her sister, Mrs. Julia E. Williams.

Mrs. Hazel Sprague is to be housekeeper for her grandfather, Deacon W. S. Graves, during her school vacation.

Mrs. Zilba Paige of Bethel and Mrs. Edward Field of Northfield recently visited at Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Williams.

George S. Graves of Northampton, Mass., recently visited his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. T. Callaghan, and Deacon W. S. Graves.

Mrs. F. O. Ralph went last week Wednesday to spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Fred Hyde, and family in Concord, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Colton and two children of Montpelier came last week to board two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Runney.

The ladies who are to have charge of the sociable at the Second church will be Mrs. Louise Morse, Mrs. Nellie Crane, Mrs. Gladys Lamson, Mrs. E. E. Ellis and Mrs. Mamie Mason.

WAITSFIELD.

Farmers are now busy haying and report a good crop.

The glorious Fourth passed off with the usual amount of noise, but no boyish freaks were in evidence.

Mrs. G. R. Miller and daughter, Margaret, of Boston came to town last Friday and will spend the summer vacation at their home in this town.

Miss Elizabeth Richardson and friend, Miss Young, of Minneapolis are spending a few weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. M. Richardson.

Mrs. Ezra Joslin and daughters, Ellen, Mary and Irene, of Minneapolis, are spending the summer at the home which they purchased from J. S. Newcomb's estate.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Jones and family of Newton Center, Mass., arrived here last Thursday and will occupy their summer home during the school vacation.

At the Republican caucus last Friday evening, the following were elected to the county convention: W. E. Jones, F. J. Wilder, O. G. Eaton, D. R. Bisbee and H. W. Belden.

W. E. Jones, our new town clerk, has built an office in the rear of his store, with an entrance through the store, which will be a much needed convenience for those doing business at the office.

RANDOLPH.

Judges Awarded Two First Prizes for Fourth of July Floats.

The judges awarding the prizes for the different floats on the Fourth found a tie between that of Guy Osha and "Columbia and the Thirteen Original States" and consequently have decided to give prizes to both. It was estimated that there were fully 2,000 people at McCall's park to witness the ball games, one of which was between the firemen's team and the Randolph high school and resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 4 to 0. The other game was also between the firemen and Fred Averill's team. The latter won the game.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Smith have returned from their carriage trip to Hardwick.

Mildred Danyon was operated upon for appendicitis at the sanatorium Tuesday night from their wedding tour of a week's length.

Mrs. J. D. Mitchell came Tuesday night from Bridgewater, where she has been to visit her sister.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Wheeler from Malden, Mass., recently visited Judge and Mrs. J. W. Rowell.

Will Hutchinson of Worcester, Mass., has arrived and is at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Tewksbury.

The ladies of the Federated church made about $20 by serving lunch on the lawn of their church Monday.

Miss Elrod from Enosburg Falls, who had been here since Tuesday, the guest of Miss Margaret Ripley, went to her home Tuesday.

S. H. McLaughlin is still suffering from heart trouble and his sister, Mrs. Cole, from White River Junction, is here assisting in the care of him.

C. F. Stevens has the foundation for his house on Maple street completed, ready for the carpenters, who will begin their work. It is expected, next week.

Miss Evelyn Reed of Williamstown, who has been a guest at M. C. Rowell's for several days, returned home Tuesday, accompanied by Ruth Scott, who will visit her for a time.

Mrs. Frances Spooner has closed a very successful year of teaching in the high school at Winsted, Conn., and has been re-engaged as teacher of history and physiology, in the four eighth grades for the coming year, with an increase of salary.

At the grange meeting on Saturday night, the first and second degrees will be conferred upon several candidates.

Lucy J. Robinson, who has been out of health for several months, died Tuesday. Miss Robinson has recently been at the sanatorium for treatment, but within a few days had been taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. King.

NORTH CALAIS.

Death of Volney Alnsworth After a Brief Illness with Pneumonia.

Volney Alnsworth, after a few hours' illness of pneumonia, passed away at the home of Betsey Marsh July 4. He was in his 82d year. "Uncle Volney," as he was familiarly called by his townspeople, had a pleasant, genial way, which endeared him to all. He leaves to mourn his loss two sisters, Betsey and Rachel, with whom he lived, and two children. Funeral services were held from his late home Tuesday; interment at the center of the town.

Leander Parker and wife have moved to Adams.

Mrs. Cynthia Foster of New York is a guest at Col. Foster's for a few weeks.

Jesse Laundry has moved his family to the home recently vacated by Leander Parker.

E. L. Foster and wife of New Jersey have arrived at their summer home, Lakeside cottage.

Ced Doten went to Burlington Friday for an operation for appendicitis. He is reported as doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Emily Cameron and granddaughter, Ruby Higgins, of Montpelier were entertained at S. K. Cameron's a few days last week.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

W. E. Randall had green peas from his own garden on the 5th inst.

Mrs. Sarah Freeman of our village is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Norris at this writing.

One of our citizens recently visited our old townsman, Sam Foster, of Moretown. He reports him as now in good health.

H. A. Phelps of Barre City has sold about 40 acres of pasture and woodland in the Clogston district to Mrs. Maggie Campbell.

Our Fourth of July passed here without an accident that we hear of, and it was regarded as unusually quiet one. And who of us is not the better for all this?

The Watermans of Hay Springs, in northwestern Nebraska, and Miss A. E. Edson took dinner on Tuesday with the family of Dr. W. B. Mayo of Northfield.

Of the 78 votes cast at our county convention last week for a west side candidate for state senator, our townsman, Lewis M. Seaver, received 59 votes. Many congratulations to Mr. Seaver and the county at large.

George H. Lovell of Northfield will address the people of Williamstown on the advantages of a canning factory, at the grange hall on Friday evening of this week. This is a matter of particular interest to the farmers of the town and it is hoped they will generally attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Alie Wilford on the old Moses Poir farm have long been hardworking farmer folks, and although they have been grandparents they have just taken their first summer vacation as husband and wife. They went to Lake Champlain and had a royal good time and came back refreshed and happy. Such a vacation might well be taken by sundry other of our farmers and wives.

MORETOWN.

Frank Griffin and Clifford Atkins spent the day in Montpelier Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neill and family spent Sunday with relatives in Stowe.

Maude Johnson spent the Fourth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis of Rochester are visiting at the Sawyer homestead for a few days.

Miss Ella Somerville of Burlington is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Royce and daughter, Edna, of Montpelier are spending a few days as guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Frank Hathaway.

All applicants for teachers' certificates will be examined at the Moretown village schoolhouse Thursday and Friday, July 7 and 8. Examinations for free tuition will also be held at the same time and place.

Among those at the Moretown house during the week were B. L. Sexton of Montpelier, Jack Ryan of Boston, Mass., D. L. Miller of Burlington, Vt., Timothy Hogan of Fall River, Mass., and K. S. Conroy of Montpelier.

Cards have been received, announcing the marriage of Rev. Levi S. Hoffman to Miss Adelaide L. Mattox at Fall River, Mass., Wednesday, June 29. Mr. Hoffman was summer supply at the South Duxbury Congregational church during